I am putting in the mail today, to each of you, "book rate", a copy of Penn Jones' book, Forgive My Grief III. Please consider them gifts or a small payment toward what I owe you.

To: Harold, Bud, Paul & Gary:

I am enclosing "episode 2" in the Paul Rothermel thing... One friend suggested Mr. Hunt is on a big oil deal. But this is not feasible to me because it would be better to "bug" the phones of those in the oil and gas department rather than in security, etc. Also, so many fields are drilled with "tax loss" in mind, one can never be certain it is for real. And $120,000. is pretty steep for such a gamble.
